

MTCES Principal Sister Anne Schulz Honored as a Woman of Excellence

[LIBERTY TOWNSHIP, Ohio ~ November 24, 2009] -- At a gala dinner ceremony at the Cincinnati Marriott North in Union Centre on Friday, November 20th, Sister Anne Schulz CPPS was honored as a Woman of Excellence by the West Chester Chamber Alliance. The honor, which she shared with nine other area women, acknowledged her leadership within the Liberty Township-West Chester community.

Sr. Anne Schulz has served as Principal and CEO of Mother Teresa since its inception in 1998. A member of the Precious Blood Religious order, Sr. Anne has over 40 years of experience in education, including 28 years as a principal.

Over seventy members of the MTCES community, and several members of the Precious Blood Order based in Dayton, were among those in attendance as Sister Anne received the well-deserved honor.

“Sister has provided Mother Teresa not only with leadership but also direction,” MTCES parent and former MTCES Board of Trustees member Jennifer Schuppe remarked. “As a community, we have been very blessed to have her at the helm; as a teacher, an administrator, and a woman of strong faith, which gives our community three valuable qualities in one person to nurture our children.”

St. Xavier freshman and 2009 MTCES graduate Ken Angel was among those honoring Sister. “I have known Sister most of my life, and she has been a mentor and a friend. She has kept me on the straight and narrow, and has always been there for me. I am happy she is being honored for all that she has done for so many young people.”

The other 2009 Women of Excellence are: Dr. Marjorie "Kelly" Cowan, Bethany Dibble, Katie Giuliano, Cynthia Grow, Carol King, Mary Carol Melton, Sheila Munafa-Kanoza, Jill Murphy and Pat Williams.

With offices located in the Voice of America Centre, the West Chester Chamber Alliance connects people and possibilities. The Chamber is approaching 900 members and serves businesses in West Chester/Liberty Townships as well as the entire Tri-State region.

Mother Teresa Elementary School, an independent Catholic school serving families of kindergarten through eighth grade children, is located at 6085 Jackie Drive in Liberty Township.
