

The Rusty Griswolds to perform at Derby Dance
Saturday, January 23rd, 2010 at Mother Teresa
Doors open at 6:30 p.m.; dancing to live music until 1 a.m.

[LIBERTY TOWNSHIP, Ohio ~ November 13, 2009] – The high-spirited performance of popular Cincinnati cover band The Rusty Griswolds will heat up the dance floor at Mother Teresa Catholic Elementary School (MTCES). On January 23, 2010, MTCES hosts the band, known for performing the best music of the '80s, as part of the fifth annual Derby Dance at the Liberty Township school.

“The addition of the Rusty Griswolds makes the Fifth Annual Derby Dance a sure bet for a fun-filled night out,” remarked event chair and MTCES parent Marty Grogan. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and Rusty Griswolds take to the stage at 9 p.m., following hours of broadcast horse races, card games & other games of chance. Ticket information will be available at the school’s website, mtces.org.

Mother Teresa Elementary School, an independent Catholic school serving families of kindergarten through eighth grade children, is located at 6085 Jackie Drive in Liberty Township.
