[LIBERTY TOWNSHIP, Ohio ~ December 15, 2009] Fiesta time arrives just before Easter week this spring, as Mother Teresa Catholic Elementary School celebrates “Mardi Gras” six weeks after New Orleans has its famous party. The ninth annual Extravaganza auction benefiting the school features a Mardi Gras theme on Palm Sunday eve, at the Receptions in Fairfield on Saturday, March 27th, 2010.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m., and guests can begin bidding on silent auction items at 7 p.m. The Live Auction begins at 9 p.m, and other games and opportunities of chance include a raffle to win a year’s tuition, and a split the pot game. “We like to get all our partygoers involved with the fun,” explained event chair Christine Brown. “Extravaganza goers participate in games of chance that literally get them on their feet, and in the action.”

Tickets prices have been rolled back to sixty dollars a person ($60); cocktail attire is required.

Mother Teresa Elementary School, an independent Catholic school serving families of kindergarten through eighth grade children, is located at 6085 Jackie Drive in Liberty Township.
